

Our Vision	Care of the highest quality, based on the best evidence, delivered within an open, innovative, knowledge-based culture.
Our Purpose	To promote wellbeing for Trust service users by enabling evidence-based practice, learning, research, innovation, organisational and personal development.
We will deliver	Up-to-date, multidisciplinary information resources that underpin the practice, learning &amp; wellbeing of staff and students	Training, support and guidance to enable effective use of information resources	Specialist knowledge and services targeted at key initiatives and functions within the Trust	Services to promote and support best practice, research and innovation
How we will deliver our services	We will promote and market our services, to new and existing staff, to ensure that Trust staff are aware of the services available to them. We will conduct expert Literature searches to support research, innovation, evidence-based and best practice. We will provide current awareness services, tailored to the needs of particular staff groups. We will promote purchased electronic resources to ensure that staff are aware of the resources available to them. We will offer a proactive service from expert and knowledgeable Library staff, to both clinical and non-clinical staff, offering bespoke support. We will provide functional, efficient electronic and physical resources in an environment that meets the varying needs of our users. We will expand the resources and services available to support the wellbeing of Trust staff. We will review and revise the literature searching training that we offer to enable staff to more easily find high quality information. We will expand the “self-serve” approach, to make it easier for library users to access and make best use of our resources. We will seek and utilise opportunities to work collaboratively with other services and bid for external funding to achieve best value for our users.
Trust values	Dignity and respect, Quality and excellence, Feedback and contribution, Listening and learning, Delivering commitments			